INDIAN SOCIETY OF GANDHIAN STUDIES

THE ORGANISERS

ISGS: Established in 1972 Indian Society of Gandhian Studies (ISGS) has acquired the reputation of a scholarly national organization.

It has a time honoured legacy of promoting teaching, research and publications related to Gandhian studies. It provides various opportunities to facilitate interaction amongst scholars, activists and institutions of Gandhian studies. The first Annual Conference of ISGS was inaugurated by renowned Gandhian Acharya J. B. Kriplani in 1972 at Allahabad. Since then, well known intellectuals like Jai Prakash Narain, Pyare Lal, U.N. Dhebar, K.M. Munshi, J.K. Mehta etc. have immensely contributed in enriching ISGS. The society has been organizing regular annual conferences across the country with the aim of providing a distinctive platform for reflection, discussion, debate, analysis and exploration of subjects related to Gandhian thought and action. The expanding participation in these conferences is proof of the relevance and sustained interest in both ISGS and Gandhian philosophy.

DEPARTMENT OF LIFELONG LEARNING

Lifelong education is the cherished goal of an ideal educational process. In a technology driven, knowledge based competitive economy, the landscape of learning is changing. Keeping in view the socio-economic changes taking place in the country, the acquisition of relevant skills and regular upgrading of skills implies the need for creating a variety of training and learning opportunities. The Department of Lifelong Learning (DLL), University of Rajasthan caters to this critical development issue of continuous development of quality and quantity of human resources and up gradation of skills.

With the purported aim of expanding the frontiers of knowledge and extending the institutional resources to the community DLL conducts short term training courses, workshops, seminars, summer schools, capacity building and skill development programmes etc. throughout the year. DLL has been successful in reaching out to large sections of society, especially the marginalized and disadvantaged, through varied interventions and capacity enhancement endeavours. The aims and the objectives of the Department are to promote a meaningful sustained and stimulating relationship between the University and the community. The impetus is to provide opportunities for a learning society, to facilitate the overall development of people and meaningfully help improve the overall quality of life.

UNIVERSITY RAJASTHAN COLLEGE

University Rajasthan College was initially established in 1957 as a nursery for preparing students for administrative services. In 1962 it was merged into the University of Rajasthan as its constituent Undergraduate Boys College for Arts, Commerce, Social Science and Humanities. Offering 19 Subjects with 69 Subject combinations this premium college of the state caters to the academic needs of almost 5000 students, 90 % of whom belong to S.C., S.T., O.B.C. and Minority Communities and largely hail from rural areas. Rajasthan College has produced outstanding academics, administrative officers, political leaders, sports-persons, artists and luminaries in different walks of life. The tradition of excellence remains well sustained making significant additions to the impressive list of achievements. The CPE awarded by UGC during XIth plan bears testimony to the significance of this college in contributing holistically towards human resource development for the society at large.

BAGRU MAHILA P G MAHAVIDYALAYA

Bagru Mahila P G Mahavidyalaya situated on the National Highway-8, Begus Road, Bagru at a distance of 25 Km, from Jaipur is a fast growing institution dedicated to the cause of women education and development. Affiliated to the University of Rajasthan this college which began with only 17 students has at present about 1300 students who are provided all the resources and modern facilities and technologies required to achieve all round development. Well equipped with vibrant faculty, labs, auditorium, sports ground and a vast library etc. the college is surging ahead with outstanding results in the field of female education and empowerment. The various awards achieved by students in academics and co-curricular activities stand testimony to the meritorious growth of this illustrious institution.

ABOUT JAIPUR

Founded in AD 1727 by Sawai Jaisingh II, Jaipur the capital of Rajasthan is popularly known as the 'Pink City'. It was designed by the brilliant architect Vidyadhar Bhattacharya in accordance with ancient Hindu treatises on Architecture, the Shilpa Shastra and follows a grid system encircled by a fortified wall. It is a city with timeless quality to it, a city where the ancient and the modern coexist in complete harmony. Jaipur is steeped in history and culture. Here the past comes alive in magnificent forts and palaces, blushed pink, where once lived the maharajas. The bustling bazaars of Jaipur, famous for Rajasthani Jewellery, fabric and shoes possess a timeless quality and are surely a treasure-trove for the shoppers. This fascinating city with its romantic charm takes you to an epoch of royalty and tradition.

Jaipur has much to offer visitors - everything from pageants and festivals to extraordinarily clad people, a wealth of handicrafts, a royal legacy of palaces, and sightseeing. Jaipur is well connected by Road air and rail from all parts of the country.

Visitor attractions include the Hawa Mahal, Jal Mahal, City Palace, Amer Fort, Jantar Mantar, Nahargarh Fort, Jaigarh Fort, Govind Dev Temple, Birla Mandir, Galtaji, the Jaipur Zoo etc.

WEATHER

Jaipur is known for extremities of climate with very hot summers and pretty cold winters. Due to the onset of winter light woollens would be required in the month of November.
